

“Clyde”

“Clyde” is a Newfoundland Pony that was on the pasture in Swansea, Newfoundland but nobody wanted him so was going out on the meat truck and was facing a long three day journey to Montreal where he would be killed for meat. Fortunately for Clyde, a very concerned person recognized his plight and took him in. He was then turned over to a friend of ponies, Mr. Cliff George, who with his friends took over the care of Clyde and after delousing and deworming he was put out to pasture under the auspices of the Canadian Farm Animal Care Trust.

We hope to find a new home for him as soon as possible.
