

"Little Orphan Annie" on arrival at our sanctuary in Bridgewater, Nova Scotia

Annie was rescued from a home where she was not receiving proper care and was in need of attention from both the farrier and a veterinarian. She was heavily infested with worms and her hooves needed trimming. We arranged for Annie to receive the care she needed and she is now responding, very well, to her new home.

Donations to help us with Annie are always very welcome and badly needed.